Good Afternoon AMCO,

In response to this license expiration letter, It was my understanding that my office would have received some sort of communication for late fees for license #'s 21724 & 21725 after the cash payment was made, however, we did not.

As it was explained to your office, over the phone by Brenda out of respect and privacy of my clients, James has been battling cancer for years now and this year during renewals he was hospitalized for chemotherapy. His chemotherapy could not be done as an outpatient procedure and that Mindy was focusing her attention on her husband while he was being transferred back and forth from Providence hospital to mat-su general and was under an enormous amount of emotional stress as I'm sure you understand. When Mindy had a moment during all of this to gather the renewal fees, my office promptly delivered the fees via the AMCO drop box. Brenda also asked that this particular situation be taken into consideration regarding any late fees, that there has to be some sort of compassion in the regulations for situations such as these, and to ask the MCB to waive the late fees if any. No definite answer was provided.

My office will submit the late fees for 21724 & 21725, but we do this under protest and request to be heard by the board for reimbursement of the late fees.

Thank you for your understanding.
