Course: L0273

Managing Floodplain Development through the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP)

Date:

February 25 - 28, 2025

Location:

Anchorage, Alaska

Course Description:

Hosted by FEMA Region 10 and the Alaska Division of Community & Regional Affairs (DCRA), this 4-day course is designed for local officials responsible for administering their local floodplain management ordinance. The course will focus on the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) and concepts of floodplain management, maps and studies, ordinances administration, and the relationship between floodplain management and flood insurance.

Target Audience:

Local officials responsible for administering local floodplain management ordinances, including floodplain management administration, building inspectors, code enforcement/zoning officers, planners, city/county managers, attorneys, engineers, and public work officials.

The course is designed for those officials with less than five years of floodplain management experience.

Funding:

There is no registration costs to attend and for Alaska ruralk community officials, the AK DCRA received grant approval to reimburse the flight and hotel travel expenses upon completion of all class sessions for one community official in each community to attend this training. Please inquire with Harmony Curtis for further details. For all other attendees, travel costs will not be covered.
