ACCUSATION & ORDER OF DENIAL

Lori Wing-Heier, Director of the Division of Insurance (Division), Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development (DCCED), State of Alaska, states the issues on which the accusation is based as follows:

1. On or about September 2nd, 2022, the Alaska Department of Commerce, Community and Economic Development, Division of Insurance (Division) issued an Insurance Producer license with Health authority to transact the business of insurance to Kaneika Wren (WREN), domiciled in the State of Illinois. The license has an expiration date of February 28th, on odd numbered years.
2. In the initial application WREN responded affirmatively to background question 1B, indicating a felony conviction for identify theft from 2019.

The documentation provided indicated WREN was under two years' probation.

3. On December 16th, 2022, January 05th, 2023, and February 7th, 2023, renewal notices were provided to the contact information provided on file for WREN.
4. On December 6th, 2022 an application to renew the insurance producer license was received by the Division. When reviewing the application, it was noted that the state of Kansas had denied WREN's license for their criminal history on or about October 12th, 2022. This action was not timely disclosed to the Division as required under AS 21.27.025.
5. In the renewal application, WREN responded negatively to background question two pertaining to being named or involved in an administrative action which had not been previously reported to the Division. The Producer Database indicated that this background question was answered incorrectly.
6. On December 13th, 2022, notice was provided to WREN indicating that the misstatement on the application is considered a violation of AS 21.27.040(a) states that "(a) Application for a license shall be made to the director upon forms prescribed by the director. As a part of or in connection with the application, the applicant shall furnish information concerning the applicant's identity, personal history, experience, business record, purposes, and other pertinent facts that the director may reasonably require. You may present evidence in support of your defense.

You may have subpoenas executed by the director or the director's designee to compel attendance of witnesses and production of evidence on your behalf.

A statement of materiality must accompany each request for execution.

You are responsible for serving the subpoenas.

The subpoena ready for execution may be presented to the Anchorage or Juneau office of the Division of Insurance for execution no later than 10 days prior to the hearing date.
