Narratives

Disaster Damage:

Since January 2011, FEMA Region X has partnered with the State of Alaska to deploy Risk Mapping, Assessment, and Planning, (Risk MAP) projects with the goal of accurately and comprehensively depicting natural hazard risks throughout Alaska, including Municipality of Anchorage, Matanuska-Susitna Borough, and Kenai Peninsula Borough.

The following information was extracted and summarized from Governor Michael L. Dunleavy, "Request for Major Disaster Declaration, January 3, 2019", State of Alaska Letter, available https://gov.alaska/wp-content/uploads/sites/2/Request-for-Presidential-Disaster-Declaration.pdf. (IV Reference 3). On November 30, 2018, at 8:29 am, Alaska Standard Time, a 7.1 magnitude earthquake located seven miles north of Anchorage near Point MacKenzie produced very strong seismic shaking that caused widespread and severe damage primarily within Municipality of Anchorage, Matanuska-Susitna Borough, and Kenai Peninsula Borough. The earthquake, and the subsequent aftershocks, caused damage to major highways and important public roads, bridges, and other transportation infrastructure; undermining of road embankments and railroad tracks, and loss of track base; widespread power, water, and communication disruption; structural collapse and resulting fires to several buildings; and severe damage to private homes, personal property, and businesses.

There were no fatalities during the 2018 Cook Inlet Earthquake and thus far, there have been no earthquake-related fatalities during the recovery. However, there is an ongoing need to respond to the residents still living in a privately-owned mobile home park, where the community water well and potable water distribution system was further damaged during the 2018 Cook Inlet Earthquake. The concentration of the shaking was primarily limited to three jurisdictions; Municipality of Anchorage, Matanuska-Susitna Borough, and Kenai Peninsula Borough. During the following two years, there have been over 12,500 aftershocks recorded by the United States Geological Survey (USGS).

All affected communities are located around the Cook Inlet in Southcentral Alaska. The Municipality of Anchorage is the largest metropolitan area in the State of Alaska with a 2018 population of 295,265. The Matanuska-Susitna Borough is located approximately 30 miles north of Anchorage, encompasses 24,682 square miles (slightly larger than the State of West Virginia) and in 2018 had a population of 105,743. The Kenai Peninsula Borough is located across the Turnagain Arm, about 40 miles south of Anchorage and in 2018 had a population of 58,471. The three contiguous jurisdictions affected by the earthquake comprise over 60 percent of the State's total population and a substantial portion of Alaska's economic base.

The National Weather Service (NWS) National Tsunami Warning Center (NTWC) issued a tsunami warning for the Cook Inlet, including Municipality of Anchorage, Matanuska-Susitna Borough, and the southern Kenai Peninsula Borough within minutes of the earthquake.

The cost and scope of the disaster was sufficient to warrant immediate federal disaster assistance; thus, in consultation with the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), Governor Walker requested and received an Emergency Declaration (EM-3410-AK) for direct federal assistance on November 30, 2018. On January 3, 2019, under the provisions of Section 401 of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. 5121-5207 (Stafford Act) and implemented by 44 CFR 206.36, Governor Dunleavy requested a Declaration of Major Disaster for the State of Alaska. The Presidential declaration of a major disaster for the State of Alaska (FEMA-4413-DR) was issued by President Trump on January 31, 2019.

Recovery Needs:

The State of Alaska/Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development (DCCED) has completed the following Impact and Needs Assessment to evaluate the three core areas of recovery - housing, infrastructure, and economic revitalization and to plan disaster relief, recovery, and mitigation activities within the three CDBG-DR eligible jurisdictions; Municipality of Anchorage, Matanuska-Susitna Borough, and Kenai Peninsula Borough.

Due to the severity of the Unmet (Affordable) Housing Needs within the Municipality of Anchorage and the Matanuska-Susitna Borough, the Public Infrastructure and Economic Revitalization Programs have been deleted.

The Needs Assessment of Unmet Housing addressed interim and permanent; owner and rental; single-family (1-4 dwelling units) and multi-family (5+ dwelling units); affordable and market rate; and housing to meet the needs of pre-earthquake homeless persons. Immediately after the 2018 Cook Inlet Earthquake, the State of Alaska provided interim housing assistance. Currently, there is no need for interim housing assistance.

According to the Alaska Housing Finance Corporation, Alaska's sole public housing authority, there is no remaining earthquake damage to public housing.

According to the Cook Inlet Housing Authority, there is no remaining earthquake damage to Indian (Alaska Native) Housing.

According to FEMA, as of May 8, 2019, there was no remaining earthquake damage to affordable and market-rate rental housing.

According to the revised FEMA Individual Assistance Program, there were 4,572 owner-occupied housing units with $10,258,920 in unmet housing needs for all types of housing.

There remains an unmet disaster relief need for the 35 households still residing in the Forest Park Mobile Home Park, an unmet housing need for the 1,000+ pre-earthquake homeless persons (the majority are in protected classes,) and a severe shortage of affordable housing (5,000+) within Municipality of Anchorage.

During the needs assessment, within Municipality of Anchorage, DCCED determined there are several housing units located in areas with overlapping natural hazards, i.e., Seismic Hazard Zone 4, High Ground Failure Susceptibility; Bootlegger Cove Special Landslide Hazard Area; and FEMA designated Special Flood Hazard Areas.

During the needs assessment, within Kenai Peninsula Borough, DCCED determined there are several housing units located in areas with overlapping natural hazards, i.e., Unspecified Seismic Hazard Zones, Coastal Erosion, Tsunami Flood Inundation Areas, and FEMA designated Special Flood Hazard Areas. DCCED determined there are numerous housing units requiring additional repair within Kenai Peninsula Borough.

In conclusion, DCCED has focused its efforts on new affordable housing construction and housing rehabilitation/recovery.

Activity Description:

DCCED will provide $100,000 to Municipality of Anchorage to establish a "live" geographic database of existing land uses, facilities, housing types, and a vacant/buildable lands inventory (BLI) including in hazard areas with the highest concentration of critical or potentially vulnerable uses, such as in seismically induced ground failure hazard zones. This includes vacant properties in seismic risk zones that may be candidates for acquisition/set-asides. This "live" database would be a sustainable product fed by ongoing data flows from property appraisal, business licensing, and development permits. It would identify existing critical uses such as public safety, medical, or utility facilities; vulnerable occupancies such as office and residential tower or emergency shelters.

Activity Description:

DCCED will provide $175,000 to Municipality of Anchorage to estimate the capacity of buildable lands for future housing, commercial, and other critical uses in the Anchorage Bowl, Chugiak-Eagle River, and Turnagain Arm/Girdwood. The study will estimate future land development capacity in terms of (1) the number of additional dwellings possible by housing type; (2) the amount of employment possible that can be accommodated by sector and wage range; and (3) key infrastructure capacity and necessary upgrades. The study will identify locations for additional housing and critical uses and how these may overlap into natural hazard areas. This study will also complete a zoning code comparison of proposed housing capacity to determine where zoning may need to be amended to accommodate projected development.

Activity Description:

DCCED will provide $175,000 to Municipality of Anchorage to forecast and allocate housing and employment growth in the Municipality of Anchorage through 2050. This study builds upon State of Alaska and University of Alaska Anchorage forecasts to update Anchorage's forecast scenarios for population, housing demand, and employment growth by industry sector. This study translates the growth forecast into resulting land space needs by housing type and household income (including LMI); and for commercial and public facilities. This study allocates forecast housing and economic activity across Anchorage and Eagle River and predicts where growth pressures will occur. This study compares forecast land demand to buildable land capacity and identifies capacity deficits relative to forecast needs. This study assesses the land capacity relative to the forecast for all types of housing and employment needs, including LMI household needs, which has not been done in previous efforts.
