

Community Development Block Grant Application Training

The CDBG program aims to improve the lives of low- to-moderate-income Alaskans, especially in rural communities, through community development, planning, & economic development projects. Municipal governments are eligible applicants, and can co-apply with non-profits, village councils, & other organizations.

TRAINING DATES

Check the box next to the dates you would like to attend:

IN PERSON TRAINING:

Location: Alaska HUD Field Office
3000 C Street, Suite 401
Anchorage, AK 99503

Oct 9 & 10

Oct 16 & 17

ZOOM TRAINING: October 7

Contact Name: _____

Contact Phone #: _____

Contact Email: _____

If you are interested in CDBG training, please return this form via email to:
matt.ford@alaska.gov or fax to (907) 451-2742

State of Alaska, Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development Division of Community and Regional Affairs