Chiropractic License by Credentials Application Instructions

Read the application, statutes, regulations, and all instructions carefully. It is your responsibility to be aware of licensing requirements and examination deadlines, and to provide all necessary documentation. The board will not consider your application until your application file is complete.

Be advised that passing an exam in another state does not qualify an applicant for an Alaska license. Applicants are required to pass the Alaska State Chiropractic Examination, and all requirements under Alaska Statutes and Regulations must be met.

The Alaska State Chiropractic examination is administered by the Alaska Board of Chiropractic Examiners four times a year. Applications to sit for the examination, fees, and all supporting documents must be submitted at least 45 days before the scheduled examination date. Incomplete applications will be processed for the subsequent examination – no exceptions.

Information regarding exam dates and deadlines is available on the division's website: www.commerce.alaska.gov/web/cbpl/
The Alaska State Chiropractic Examination consist of a written exam covering information in the statutes and regulations booklet published by the Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing. It is available on the division's website: www.commerce.alaska.gov/web/Portals/5/pub/ChiropracticStatutes.pdf.

In addition, the exam may cover any other subjects that are deemed necessary to demonstrate knowledge of chiropractic as defined in AS 08.20.230. A score of 75 percent or higher is required to receive a passing score on the examination.

Verification of active licensed clinical chiropractic practice for at least three of the five years preceding the date of the application using form #08-4953b.

6. VERIFICATION OF LICENSURE

Verification of Licensure must be sent directly to the department from each jurisdiction where the applicant holds or has ever held a license to practice profession type. Each verification must include an explanation of any disciplinary action taken against the licensee. Check with each of the state boards you are or have been licensed in for their verification request process. If a state offers primary source verification on their website, that can be accepted as long as the website clearly confirms it's a primary source verification.

All applicants will also be subject to a check of the national licensee database maintained by the Federation of Chiropractic Licensing Boards (FCLB) to verify any action(s) that may have been reported by other licensing agencies.

7. CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD

A complete criminal history record issued within the past 90 days by the Alaska State Department of Public Safety sent directly to the Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing; and an equivalent report from your primary state of residence, if not Alaska, as well all states or jurisdiction where the applicant holds or has ever held a chiropractic license sent directly to the Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing.

The Alaska State Department of Public Safety maintains records of criminal history. You must request they send your record directly to the Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing at the address above, even if you have never lived or worked in Alaska. To find an office location or download an application to request your records, visit their website at: www.dps.state.ak.us/statewide/background/. For other states or jurisdictions, you will need to contact their justice agency to request an equivalent report to be sent on your behalf.

8. SWORN STATEMENT

Applicants must submit a notarized, sworn statement (form #08-4953c) confirming that, within the five years preceding the application date, they have not been the subject of any unresolved review or adverse decision resulting from a complaint, investigation, review procedure, or disciplinary action.

This includes proceedings undertaken by any state, territorial, local, or federal chiropractic licensing jurisdiction, chiropractic society, or law enforcement agency related to:

- Criminal or fraudulent activity,
- Chiropractic malpractice, or
- Negligent chiropractic care.

The statement must confirm that none of these issues adversely reflect on the applicant's ability or competence to practice chiropractic or the safety and well-being of patients.

TEMPORARY PERMIT

A temporary permit holder must practice under the supervision of a licensed chiropractor in the state. The sponsoring chiropractor assumes all legal liability for the practice of the temporary permit holder, as required by 12 AAC 16.200. An applicant for a temporary permit must qualify under 12 AAC 16.030, including the educational and national exam requirements, and may not have previously taken and failed the Alaska State Chiropractic Exam, or have previously held a temporary permit. A temporary permit is valid only until the results of the next scheduled examination are received by the applicant.

The following must be submitted before an applicant will be considered for a temporary permit:

1. APPLICATION

A completed application, signed and notarized, including all supporting documents and fees as listed above.

2. FEES

Fees made payable to "State of Alaska."

Temporary Permit Fee: $150.00

3. STATEMENT OF SPONSORSHIP

A notarized, sworn statement of sponsorship by the Alaska-licensed chiropractic physician (form #08-4953d) with whom the temporary permit holder will practice, stating the sponsor assumes all legal liability for the practice of the temporary permit holder and is physically present in the same facility when the temporary permit holder is practicing.

General Information

APPLICATION PROCESSING:

The average processing time varies by program. When the application is complete and correct, all supporting documents have been received and all fees have been paid, the license may be issued. Start the process far enough in advance to allow for processing time. Applications are reviewed in order of receipt in our office, and walk-in customers should not expect immediate review.

LICENSE TERM:

Licenses are issued for a two-year period and expire on December 31 of even-numbered years, regardless of the date of issuance, except licenses issued within 90 days of the expiration date which are issued to the next biennial expiration date. One renewal notice will be sent via email or mail at least 30 days before license expiration to the last known email or mailing address of record. Failure to receive a renewal notice does not relieve a licensee from the responsibility of renewing a license on time.

PROFESSIONAL FITNESS QUESTIONS:

A “yes” response in the application does not mean your application will be denied. If you have responded “yes” to any professional fitness questions, submit an explanation with the charging and closing court documentation showing final disposition of charge(s) (e.g. court records, fitness letters, etc.).

DENIAL OF APPLICATION:

Be aware that the denial of an application for licensure may be reported to any person, professional licensing board, federal, state, or local governmental agency, or other entity making a relevant inquiry or as may be required by law.

ADDRESS OR NAME CHANGE:

In accordance with 12 AAC 02.900, it is the applicant's responsibility to notify the division, in writing, of changes of address or name. Name and address change notification forms are available on the division's website. The address of record with the division will be used to send renewals and all other official notifications. The name appearing on the license must be your current legal name.

CERTIFIED TRUE COPIES:

If any of the required documents will be issued under a former name, indicate on the application and submit marriage license and/or court documents that are notarized as a “certified true copy of the original document”. To obtain a certified true copy, you must present the notary with the original document along with the photocopy. You must write, “I certify this is a true copy of the original document” and sign your name. The notary will compare the original document with the copy and then notarize your signature.

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS:

AS 08.01.060 requires a U.S. Social Security Number be on file with the division before a professional license is issued. If you do not have a U.S. Social Security Number, complete the Request for Exemption from Social Security Number Requirement form located at ProfessionalLicense.Alaska.Gov.

PUBLIC INFORMATION:

All information on the application will be available as public record, unless required to be kept confidential by state or federal law.

ABANDONED APPLICATIONS:

Under 12 AAC 02.910, an application is considered abandoned when 12 months have elapsed since correspondence was last received from or on behalf of the applicant. An abandoned application is denied without prejudice. At the time of abandonment, the division will send notification to the last known address of the applicant, who has 30 days to submit a written request for a refund of biennial license and other fees paid. The application fee will not be refunded. If no request for refund is received within that timeframe, no refund will be issued, and all fees will be forfeited.

BUSINESS LICENSES:

The status of a professional license will directly impact the status of an associated business license. Renewal applications for business licenses are mailed separately. For more information about business licenses, (907) 465-2550 or BusinessLicense.Alaska.Gov.

STALE DOCUMENTS:

Application forms, authorizations and verifications older than 12 months from the date the document was received by the division will be considered stale; the document must be resubmitted as appropriate before the application will be considered by the division or a licensing board. Application documents include the application documents and verifications of licensure from other licensing jurisdictions. (12 AAC 02.915)

PAYMENT OF CHILD SUPPORT:

If the Alaska Child Support Enforcement Division has determined that you are in arrears on child support, you may be issued a nonrenewable temporary license valid for 150 days. Contact Child Support Services at (907) 269-6900 to resolve payment issues.

STATUTES AND REGULATIONS:

The complete set of statutes and regulations for this program are available by written request or online at the division's website: ProfessionalLicense.Alaska.Gov. To receive notification of all proposed regulation changes, send a request with your name, preferred contact method (mail or email), and the program you want to be updated on to the regulation specialist at the following email: RegulationsAndPublicComment@Alaska.Gov.
